

THE SAMOA DISASTER.

Old Huls Sent to the Relief of the Wrecked Ships.

BRITISH NAVAL OFFICERS

Send Sympathy to Our Navy Department—Admiral Kimberley will Remain at the Islands—Hurry up the Charleston.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Navy Department is making every effort to secure an adequate representation at Samoa. Orders were sent out to have the Richmond, Albatross and Adams sent to Apia at the earliest practicable moment. The Albatross is at Honolulu all ready to sail when she coals and provisions can be reached Samoa in a month or forty days. The Richmond is not in such a favorable place, being at present in the River Rio de la Platte on the east coast of South America and must go around Cape Horn.

The Adams is under repair at the Mare Island, California, navy yard. Ten days or two weeks will serve to complete the repairs, and after a few days additional consumed in taking on stores and coal she may sail on her voyage, which will take about a month.

The Yantic, now at Brooklyn, will be ready to sail on the 10th inst., probably to relieve the Richmond.

ADMIRAL KIMBERLEY'S AUTHORITY.

The detail for the Adams was almost completed this afternoon. She will be under the direction of Commander E. T. Woodward. There will be no new orders in regard to Samoan affairs given to the commanders of vessels. Admiral Kimberley will remain at Apia and will continue in command of the squadron. He has issued instructions to his officers before his departure and the situation has not changed since then. The Admiral has considerable discretion vested in him and may, to a considerable extent, exercise his own judgment. In regard to what shall be done, should anything occur to render new instructions advisable they can be prepared and sent to Samoa long before the war vessels get there. The thing now needed there is ships, not instructions. It is not improbable that the Samoan conference will have met and settled the entanglement between the United States and Germany before our vessels reach Samoa and any new orders sent to Admiral Kimberley will be of little avail.

While the vessels ordered to Samoa to-day are fair vessels of their kind, yet they are by no means equal to the three vessels which were wrecked and are of antiquity compared with the vessels of the German East African fleet which have been ordered to Apia. The old Richmond is by far the largest of the vessels that will go down.

A great criticism from the English navy officers was contained in the following cablegram received by Secretary Tracy when he returned to Washington this morning:

TO THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, WASHINGTON.

The officers of this English channel fleet sympathize with the American navy on the terrible loss of life wrecks at Samoa.

To this message, the following reply was made:

WASHINGTON, APRIL 1.

Accept for yourself and the officers of your command my grateful acknowledgments on behalf of the United States Navy, for your message of sympathy and condolence in connection with the disaster at Samoa.

TRACY, SECRETARY OF NAVY.

The Question of Relief.

SAFETY, APRIL 1.—In naval and shipping circles the question has been discussed as to the best and earliest means of getting supplies from Samoa to the United States. It should be made available to send them to the ship wrecked officers and seamen. The steamer Zealandia, which sails for New Zealand April 6 is a merchant steamer of the Pacific line, pushing her way through the ice, and carries over 1,000 tons of wheat alone for Sydney and Melbourne, owing to the shortage in colonial wheat crops. She will therefore not have much room for additional freight. It is thought, however, that the Navy Department could arrange to have the Zealandia proceed to Apia on this trip instead of making Australia, her port of call. This would enable her to render any urgent assistance and also procure later and more definite orders from the United States. The New Zealand Government has an agent here and such arrangements would have to be made by the United States between him and the Oceanic Steamship Company.

Hurry up the Charleston.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 1.—Renewed instructions have been sent to San Francisco to hurry forward the preparation of the Charleston and every effort will be made to get her guns and cartridges transported overland at the earliest possible moment. The guns are ready at the proving ground at Annapolis and the cartridges are about ready at the Washington Navy Yard.

The Queen's Sympathy.

LONDON, April 1.—The Queen has sent a cable dispatch to Emperor William expressing her regret for the German men-of-war at Samoa, and her sympathy with the relatives of those who lost their lives in the disaster.

A New Comet Discovered.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 1.—Professor Seale, of Warner Observatory, has received a telegram from the Lick Observatory announcing the discovery last evening by Professor Barnard of a new comet.

The Comet's Orbit.

CINCINNATI, April 1.—The Cincinnati and Pittsburgh played an exhibition game to-day under a cloudy sky and slippery grounds in a raw wind. The score stood Cincinnati 6, Pittsburgh 2. Base hits, Cincinnati 6; Pittsburgh 4; errors, Cincinnati 6; Pittsburgh 4; earned runs, Cincinnati 2; Pittsburgh 1.

Detroit Defeated.

RICHMOND, VA., April 1.—The Richmond baseball club defeated the Detroit club by a score of 4 to 2.

UNFORTUNATE FOR THE PARTY.

The Republican Senators who Defeated Halstead Imperilled the Party Interest in Ohio.

New York, April 1.—The Times (Independent Democrat) this morning quotes the editorial of the Commercial Gazette on the rejection of Mr. Halstead and then says: "We are bound to say that we believe this statement to be substantially correct. It would be possible to render a more satisfactory and trustworthy judgment concerning it if the proceedings of the Senate were not wrapped in secrecy and the words, as well as votes, of the Senators screened from public scrutiny. This is once a misfortune, and a disgrace, but the Senators who are now for a second time held up to reproach and contempt for the conduct growing out of the Payne scandal are not, from the very fact of the secrecy in which they hide, entitled to the benefit of any doubt that may arise from lack of knowledge. They cannot complain if they are judged by the known facts. The known facts are all against them. The plea which is made in their behalf—that they are not governed by disinterested motives by the abstract standard of temperate judgment and expression demanded in a diplomatist which would be available if they applied that standard in other cases—that they have not done. On the contrary they have distinctly shown they have done more than this. They have justified a general suspicion that they have reason for the opinion that there are enough Republican Senators to turn the scale on any question, who are actuated by motives and by the most popular newspaper in that State. It cannot but have a very considerable influence upon the fortunes of the party there and it will have a decided influence upon public opinion throughout the country.

"The World (Democrat) says: 'Senator Sherman in his plea for Mr. Halstead's confirmation, frankly acknowledged that he "did not approve the sort of journalism" represented by the editor of the Commercial Gazette. A frank admission that there are not enough Republicans in the gift of the Government to prevent a frank acknowledgment that they do not approve the sort of statesmanship represented by a large number of Senators of the United States.'

THE GOLD EXCITEMENT.

Rich Quartz Discoveries—In Editor's Opinion of the Fields.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., April 1.—Joseph Messenger, a merchant of Tiguana, has arrived from Lower California. In relating his experiences Messenger has little to say about the placers in Mexican or American gulch, although he reports that a good many people are still taking out gold in small quantities, but he is enthusiastic over the rich quartz discoveries in the Arroyo de Alas, four miles distant from the gulches mentioned. Messenger states that during his stay three quartz claims in the vicinity of the Princess mine, which latter is supposed to be the richest so far discovered, have been sold to a syndicate of capitalists for $50,000. The troubles which have been reported to exist between rival claimants of the Princess were amicably adjusted before Governor Terreson Tuesday last.

Warren Wilson, editor and capitalist, of San Bernardino, writes from Santa Clara County:

"I am satisfied with personal investigation and interviews with old and successful miners that the best judgment of the camp will unite with me in pronouncing the Santa Clara district the richest on the surface. The richest area yet discovered on the Pacific slope. What there is beneath the surface it will require months, probably years, to determine and until it is finally ascertained there will be a wide difference of opinion.

GENTRY, THE HUGGER.

A Terror to Louisville Ladies Run in by the Police.

LOUISVILLE, KY., April 1.—As Lieutenant Jacobs was standing on the corner of Twelfth and Market streets last night, about nine o'clock, he heard a woman's scream on the block below him. Running towards Thirtieth street, he saw a large man holding two struggling females in his arms and loudly fondling them. The policeman seized the assailant and escorted him to Central Station, where he gave the name of James Gentry. He declined to give any further account of himself, but is believed to be a stranger in the city.

He is a tall, well-dressed man, about thirty-five years old and quite handsome. For several days women in the neighborhood of Thirtieth and Market streets have been persecuted by his assaults. He does not kiss his victims, but he seemed to have an uncontrollable desire to hug pretty girls. He shows no signs of insanity, and says his peculiar attention to women are simply for fun.

WHITE-CAPPED A GIRL BAND.

Organization of a Colored Political Club in Chicago Leads to Acts of Violence.

CHICAGO, APRIL 1.—It is reported that the White-Cappeds, a few miles from this city. The matter was brought to the attention of Governor Gordon, John Miller, Morgan Suttles, Hugh Dutton, and a band of gypsies, including a woman, have been beaten. Henry Brown had his house burnt down and was driven from the county. W. J. Walker was warned to leave within twenty-four hours on pain of death. All of the men who have been whipped are colored, except Miller and the gypsies. The cause is the organization of a colored political club.

Sue for Damages.

MANVELD, O., April 1.—Harvey B. Mosser has sued the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railroad Company for $50,000 damages, for injuries sustained near Dayton, February 10, 1888. He had come to that city on an Erie train, the conductor of which had paid the fare to the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis conductor his fare instead of getting out of the coach to buy a ticket. He was put off the train, and walking back to Dayton a train knocked him off a trestle, breaking both arms.

Ticket Office Robbed.

CINCINNATI, April 1.—The railroad ticket office of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road at Wyoming, O., was burglarized last night and $100 in money taken. The agent had sold a number of tickets on Saturday and it is evident the thieves had in mind selecting the time for their visit.

THE MILL STILL GRINDS.

The Nominations Sent to the Senate Yesterday.

J. N. HUSTON MADE TREASURER

Of the United States—Other Good Men Named—An Interesting Tilt in the Secret Session of the Senate—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 1.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day:

James N. Huston, of Indiana, to be Treasurer of the United States.

Ellis H. Roberts, of New York, to be Assistant Treasurer at New York City.

William F. Watson, of Massachusetts, to be Assistant Secretary of State.

George H. Shields, of Missouri, to be Assistant Attorney General, vice Richard Montgomery, resigned.

Drury K. Burnett, of Kentucky, to be Marshal of the United States for the District of Kentucky.

Major Charles C. Byrne, Surgeon, to be Lieutenant Colonel and Surgeon; Captain Curtis E. Munn, Assistant Surgeon, to be Major and Surgeon.

Navy.—Capt. George R. White, U. S. A., to be Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks in the Department of the Navy to fill a vacancy.

Bradford Prince, of Santa Fe, N. M., to be Governor of New Mexico.

Louis A. Walker, of Helena, Mont., to be Secretary of Montana.

James E. Kelly, of Nebraska, to be Receiver of Public Money at Bloomington, Neb.

William W. Junkin, of Fairfield, Iowa, to be Agent for the Indians—Charles A. Ashley, of New York, at the Cheyenne and Arapahoe agency in the Indian Territory; Charles R. Aschoy, of Montana, at the Fort Peck agency in Montana.

James Nelson Huston, who has been appointed Treasurer of the United States, is a native of Pennsylvania, having been born near Greencastle, that State, less than forty years ago. He received an academic education in his native State, but removed with his parents to Indiana while still a youth, locating at Connersville. His education has been that of a business man. After his father had opened a bank at Connersville, he entered it as cashier and is now at the head of the institution. Mr. Huston inherited a fortune, and has added very largely to it. He is interested in agricultural matters and in various manufacturing industries. Mr. Huston has always been a Republican, and has served in both branches of the Legislature of the State. In 1880 he was chosen by his party to take control of the organization as Chairman of the State Committee, and managed the campaign in Indiana in the late Presidential contest. Physically he is a small man.

GEORGE B. WHITE.

Capt. George B. White, who was nominated to succeed Admiral Hammon as Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, Navy Department, is particularly well known to Philadelphians, as many years of his life has been passed in that city. He is a nephew of Representative William M. Kelly.

WILLIAM H. WHARTON.

William H. Wharton, the newly nominated Assistant Secretary of State was born in Massachusetts and is about 42 years of age. He is a cousin of the late Francis Wharton, who served in the Massachusetts legislature, is a member of the State bar, and the author of legal works.

George H. Shields, who was to-day nominated to be Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department, is about 55 years of age, and is a man of high legal and social attainments. He has been a resident of St. Louis for many years and for a long time was associated as law partner with General John R. Henderson.

MAY ADJOURN TO-DAY.

It seems to be the universal expectation among Senators that the Senate will adjourn the present special session sine die to-morrow.

If the session ends to-morrow, it will then have been of exactly the same length as the one convened by President Arthur to receive President Cleveland's nominations.

President Harrison has sent in about 350 nominations since the 5th of March, all of which have been reported to the Senate by the Department, and will have been confirmed before adjournment. Of the offices yet to be filled the most important are Commissioner of the general land and Public Printer. It is believed that they will be filled in a few days. Editor Osborne, of the Los Angeles Evening Express, is believed to be the man selected for Public Printer, but no satisfactory guess can be made as to the Land Commissioner. It is the general opinion that W. M. Meredith, of Chicago, who was supposed to be the coming man for Public Printer, will succeed E. O. Graves as Superintendent of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

WORKLEY'S CONFIRMATION.

In executive session to-day Senator Plumb stated that he had moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the nomination of Lewis Workley, to be Governor of Arizona, had been confirmed, upon the assurance that charges against his character would be considered by the committee, would be presented, and since then he had become satisfied that the action of the committee was right and he would not press his motion. The injunction of secrecy upon the confirmation was accordingly removed.

MOONSHINE OR DEMOCRATS?

There was considerable discussion upon the nomination of the delegates to the Congress of American Nations to be held in this city next autumn. Objection was made that they were almost unanimously Republican in politics and that if their report was to have the weight before the country and with Congress that it ought to have there should be a more equitable division between the two parties. Senator Sherman, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, which had recommended confirmation of the list, stated that [three of

THEY, NAMELY, MESSRS. WHYTE, OF MARYLAND, TRESCOTT, OF SOUTH CAROLINA, AND HANSON, OF GEORGIA, WERE DEMOCRATS.]

Minority Senators, however, insisted that Messrs. Treseott and Hanson were Mugwumps, not Democrats, and ought not to be considered.

Senator Sherman—Well, Mr. Hanson was recommended by the Senator from Georgia as a good Democrat.

To a special statement there was no response. The report of the committee went over until to-morrow without action, by general consent, there being no formal motion of objection entered.

OF INTEREST TO SETTLERS

In the Oklahoma Territory—An Order from the Land Office.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, with the approval of Secretary Noble, has issued to the registers and receivers of the newly established land offices in Oklahoma a letter of instructions, which is of special interest to persons desiring to settle in that territory.

The most important features of the letter of instruction are the following:

You will observe that the statute reserves sections 18 and 36 in every township for school purposes and the proclamation reserves for government land certain lots of the north-west quarter of section 15, township 16, north range, north range, two west of the Indian meridian in Indian Territory, and also one acre of land in the south-east corner of the north-west quarter of section 15, township 16, north range, seven west of the Indian meridian in the Indian Territory. The remainder of the lands are made subject to entry by actual settlers under the general homestead law with certain modifications.

Your attention is directed to the general circular issued by this office January 1, 1889, containing the homestead laws and official regulations thereunder. These laws and regulations will control your action, but modified by the special provisions of the said act of March 2, 1889, in the following particular, viz:

1. The rule stated on the 17th page of said circular, under the title "Only one homestead privilege shall be allowed a person permitted," is modified as to admit of a homestead entry being made by any one who, prior to the passage of said act, had made a homestead entry but failed from any cause to secure a title in fee to the land claimed.

With reference to persons making homestead entries and failing to acquire title thereunder, the Commissioner has directed that the rule of said act of March 2, 1889, the rule as to second homesteads is operative, and will be enforced in relation to these lands as well as others.

WITH OPEN DOORS.

Sensor Teller Introduces an Important Resolution in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Senate met at 3 p. m. Mr. Teller offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That hereafter all executive nominations shall be considered in open session of the Senate.

He said: I do not intend to ask a reconsideration of this resolution at this time. I merely offer it that it may be referred to the Committee on Rules. At the next regular session of the Senate, if I live to present, I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart, that I have no right to present. I intend to press the resolution in season and out of season. I have never believed that there was any reason why an executive nomination should be considered by the Senate with closed doors. I am satisfied that the great majority of the people of the United States, irrespective of party, are of the same opinion. I am tired of giving my reasons to the Senate with closed doors for a vote which I give, as of feeling in my heart